

AFRICA-ISRAEL
ECONOMIC COOP.
COMMITTEE

Who We Are

The Africa—Israel Economic Cooperation Committee is a leading international public-private partnership and cooperation platform that strives to bring together business and government leaders from both Africa and Israel to deepen their economic development relationships.

Theory of Change

At the Africa—Israel Economic Cooperation Committee, we believe a stronger economic relationship between Africa and Israel is possible. Our work is urgently needed: We are redefining what the Africa—Israel economic relations will truly look like in the next 200 years. We are also harnessing our collective power to transform economic exchange and business systems to advance long-lasting solutions for Africa and Israel.

Our vision

Founded in 2024, we foster innovative public-private partnerships, enhancing economic relations between African nations and Israel for a prosperous mutual future.

Our Missions

The Africa—Israel Economic Cooperation Committee believes that the relations between Africa and the State of Israel can be strengthened, diversified, and reinvigorated. The AIECC's vision and mission include:

1. Reinforcing Africa – Israel's economic relations to benefit current and future generations of business and government leaders.
2. Enhancing strategic partnerships and collaborations: we work with African and Israeli leaders in business and government to take the Africa – Israel economic relations to the next level of growth, success, and impact.
3. Build coalitions for resource mobilization
4. Drive a sustainable lobby: We work with African and Israeli leaders to maintain a long-term, sustainable economic relationship that benefits both sides.
